

“Matthew: The Christian's Teaching Gospel”

A Talk by Madelon Maupin
July 11th, Thursday, 7:00—8:30 pm

Loved by early Christians, Matthew's Gospel continues today teaching us how to pray, be better followers of Christ Jesus and provide the Christian's rules for living — the Beatitudes. Come learn why this loved Gospel found its way to the first position in the Canon—although not written first—and about the author, circumstances, background, structure and message that make this such a remarkable Gospel. We hope you can make it!

You are warmly invited to attend a talk on The Gospel of Matthew

Thursday, July 11th 7:00 pm — 8:30 pm

1st Church of Christ,
Scientist,
Newport Beach
3303 Via Lido
Newport Beach, CA

Please RSVP by email:
support@BibleRoads.com
Slide show and handouts
provided

$10/person

*Sculpture of St Matthew by Michelangelo,
in the Galleria
dell'Accademia, Florence, Italy.*

Madelon has a Master of Arts in Theological Studies degree from San Francisco Theological Seminary and a B.A. in Religion from Principia College, Elmhurst, Illinois. She served as Cultural Historian for Princess Cruises, providing shipboard lectures for tours to Biblical lands, as well as leading her own. She lives in Newport Beach, California, with her husband, George Birdsong. Madelon is a Trustee for Adventure Unlimited, and the New Theological Seminary of the West, and writes regularly for the Christian Science publications. She recently launched Bible Roads, which provides in person and on line Bible education. Please sign up at www.BibleRoads.com to receive notices of coming events.

This is a non-denominational talk for those who want to learn more about the Bible — whether newcomers or long time students. This will also be the last Bible presentation at this beautiful Church since it will be closing August 4th. Please join us and feel free to bring guests. Cookies and drinks will follow.